La Ciencia de Lo Invisible (Coleccion Espiritualidad, Metafisica y Vida Interior) Massimo Citro M.D.

Is it possible to transfer information to water through sounds and emotions? Can we transfer the therapeutic properties of drugs to the living beings? It is a text that tells the physic phenomenons that our senses do not perceive, neither magic nor superstitious phenomenon but they constitute the basis of a new but also ancient science.

About the Author

Massimo Citro, M.D., is a medical doctor specializing in psychotherapy and the discoverer of pharmacological frequency transfer (TFF). He is a member of the Club of Budapest, is the founder and director of the Alberto Sorti Research Institute (IDRAS), and also has a degree in literature. He lives in Torino, Italy.

Masaru Emoto is an internationally renowned Japanese researcher who has gained worldwide acclaim. Emoto is a graduate of the Yokohama Municipal University's department of humanities and sciences with a focus on International Relations, and he received certification as a Doctor of Alternative Medicine from the Open International University.

Emoto's research has visually captured the structure of water at the moment of freezing, and through high-speed photography he has shown the direct consequences of destructive thoughts and the thoughts of love and appreciation of the formation of water crystals. The revelation that our thoughts can influence water has profound implications for our health and the well-being of the planet.

Masaru Emoto has written many books, including the "New York Times" bestselling "The Hidden Messages in Water, " and his books have been published in twenty-four languages.
